ENLARGED BUSINESS.

A Hearty Welcome to Him Who Comes to Increase Oer Industries.

THE LEDGER some days ago made mention of the fact that Mr. A. D. Flora had bought the Marbie Works of Gilmore & Co.

It can now add that Mr. Flora has not only 'Come to stay," but that he intends to enlarge the business to an extent heretofore unknown in Mayaville.

He has already booked orders for several handsome designs. Mr. Flora comes from Richmond, where he has for years been engaged in the business, are evidences of his superior workmanship, ments of Granite and Marble to be found any where in the state.

He is himself thoroughly practical in all de partments, comes to us highly recommended and bas is his employ Mr. McDonald, an artist of superior ability; and with these assurances, there no longer exists any necessity for our people to go abroad for work of this character.

Mr. Flora is prepared to meet all honorable competition, and THE LEDGER bespeaks for him that consideration which is due to every enterprise that will aid in the upbuilding of

MR. JACOB OUTTEN.
